

Flip-Mastery Classroom Rules for Computing Devices

1. You may only use the school-issued tablet you are assigned.
2. You may only use the school-issued tablet for work assigned in this class.
3. If you are using your own mobile device while you are in this classroom, it too may be only used to complete work for this class.
4. Electronic devices may only be used during assessments with permission from the instructor.
5. School-issued electronic devices may not leave the room without the permission of the instructor.
6. No one is dismissed without the permission of the instructor. You may be required to stay in class until all school property is returned.
7. You may only log-on to a school-issued tablet as "student."
8. You may not alter the hardware or software of a school computing device. This includes the wallpaper, background, screensaver, or other aesthetic features.
9. You may not mark on or remove tags from any school-issued electronic device.
10. Do not save work to a school-issued device. Save it to a cloud location or email it to yourself.
11. Intentional or malicious actions that result in damage to school property may result in a bill for the cost of the device.
12. Food and liquids may not near any school computing device.
13. If you notice any damage to the tablet you are assigned, report it to the instructor immediately.
14. Any use of electronic devices to bully, harass, or humiliate others is forbidden and school policies will be strictly followed when this occurs.
15. Any use of electronic devices to cheat including plagiarism will result in a zero on the assignment, a "U" grade at quarter or semester, and a referral to your assigned assistant principal. School policies will be adhered to in these matters. If you have been referred for previous acts of cheating, you may be subject to being dropped with an "F" grade.
16. Any attempt to violate the Garden Grove School District internet safeguards or protections will be reported and school policies will be enforced.
17. The instructor may suspend your privilege to use electronic devices in this class for violating any of these rules.

I have read and understand these rules.
