

Long-run and Short-run Aggregate Graphs Drill Set 5

Create graphs for the following situations.

1. Show an economy with full employment.
2. More electronics from Asia are imported into the U.S. Show what will happen to American GDP.
3. Businesses invest in more industrial robots. Show what will happen to American GDP.
4. Consumers lose confidence in the future and they spend less. Graph it.
5. Credit card rules are tightened and people spend less. Show what will happen to American GDP.
6. Crude oil prices spike. What will happen to the U.S. economy?
7. U. S. corn exports increase. Show what will happen to American GDP.
8. The Federal government increases the budget for the Defense Department. Graph it.
9. Mexican imports to the U.S. rise. What will happen to the U.S. economy?
10. Show an economy with a inflationary gap.