

Social Science Training 2-11-15

Website Cheatsheet

- I. kahoot.it
 - A. It is a game-based classroom response system
 - B. Work will any computing device
 - 1. Computer
 - 2. Tablet
 - 3. Smartphone
 - C. Go to getkahoot.com to register for free
 - D. Students will go to the game site kahoot.it to enter a game
- II. Google Drive and Google classroom
 - A. drive.google.com
 - B. The district has created an account for you.
 - C. It is similar to your email account except it ends with “.net” instead of “.us”
 - D. You password is the same as your email account.
 - E. You should be able to navigate any to Google site once you sign in.
 - F. You can create word processed documents (Google Docs), spreadsheets (Google Sheets), slide presentations (Google Slides), and more by pressing “New” in the upper left corner.
 - G. Google Forms and other items may be created by pressing “More” after you press “New.”
 - H. In the upper left corner of your drive page is a nine box icon. Click it. Then click “More.”
 - I. You will see other possible places to visit within Google. Click “Classroom.”
 - J. Google Classroom is a classroom management site.
 - 1. It allows you to make announcements to your students.
 - 2. You can assign, receive, and grade student work.
 - 3. Students can post comments as well.
 - K. Click the “+” icon in the upper right corner to join or create a class. You can only join a class if you know the Google generated code.
 - L. All students in the district have a Google account. To join a class you have create, a student must use their district Google account.
 - 1. They look like this, “15jsmith@ggusd.net”
 - 2. Grad year, first initial, last name, @ggusd.net
 - 3. If more than one student within the district has the same first initial and last name, the district adds a number after the last name.
 - 4. 15jsmith2@ggusd.net
 - 5. The initial student password is their birthday, for example: 03031997
 - 6. A complete list of the student body’s usernames and initial passwords can be found on Illuminate. Go to your dashboard and find the “Favorites” section in the upper right corner.
 - 7. Search for the “Student Login: Google Docs & Illuminate Online testing”
 - 8. Click this report.